

Let's brainstorm: Loop Game

Cut the table above in lines (question and answer with the same no). Deal out lines to your students, a few each. The game is started by the player who has no. 1 by reading out the question on the left side of the line. All players look for an answer on their cards (on the right) and give the presenter the answer. Presenter checks the answer with answer key. The game finishes when all the cards have returned to the presenter
