

Challenging stereotypes

1. Individually, do you agree/disagree with any of these statements? In your opinion, would you substitute the word 'all' or "always" for "most" 'some', 'a few', 'none' "sometimes" "frequently" etc. in any of these statements?
2. Working in small groups, discuss your answers.

In Ireland

- All people have red hair
- All people have potatoes for their dinner
- All people speak Irish
- All people like Guinness
- All people are very friendly
- All people are very religious
- All people live in houses
- All people know each other
- It rains always rains
- It is always overcast

In Lithuania

- Lithuanians drink only beer „Švyturys”
- All Lithuanians speak Russian
- All Lithuanian people complain all the time and about everything
- All Lithuanian people are Catholics
- All Lithuanian people drink vodka
- All Lithuanian people are very serious
- All Lithuanians are very good workers
- All Lithuanians love basketball
- All Lithuanians are tall
- All Lithuanians have 12 dishes on the New Year's Eve