Newsletter

Welcome to the October 2022 Post-Primary Languages Ireland Newsletter. We are delighted to support you and foreign languages education!

#ThinkLanguages 2022

The deadline for Step 2 of Registration for #ThinkLanguages is Friday 21st October. We need these details ASAP to fully confirm your registration, to help us assign live workshops, and to get to complete your full event packs finalised. This year 15,000 TY students will join in our annual celebration of languages and cultures. For more information about #ThinkLanguages 2022 click here>>

Languages Connect

Languages Connect has partnered with MS Readathon again this year to include a foreign language category in the well-known fundraiser. For those with a heritage language other than English or Irish, it is a great chance to read together and share their language skills. It is also a great chance to win some prizes! Read More>>

Áiseanna do Chomhairleoirí Gairmthreorach

Forbraíodh na háiseanna seo i nGaeilge, i gcompháirt le COGG, chun cuidiú le scoláirí meas a fhorbairt ar thábhacht teangacha san ionad oibre. Beidh an-tábhacht le scileanna teangacha iasachta in earnáil na tionsclaíochta in Éirinn sna blianta atá romhainn. Tabhair Cuairt Anois Air>>

Spotlight on Schools

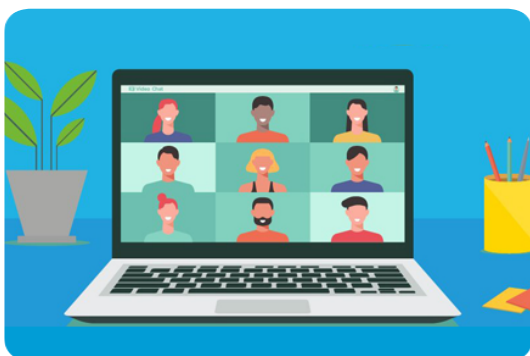

In the latest edition of Spotlight on Schools, titled 'Let's Speak Ukrainian', teachers at Summerhill College, Sligo, demonstrate a whole school approach to welcoming Ukrainian students to the school community. This project facilitated both linguistic and cultural discovery. Read More>>

PPLI website

Our website has recently had a 'makeover'. It still has a familiar look, with our colourful tile links on the frontpage, but there have been many updates giving it a fresher, more modern look. Navigation has been made more intuitive, with dropdown menus and button links. The site is fully responsive making the mobile and tablet experience more enjoyable. Visit>>
