

TY Module Non-Beginners

The Great Chinese Language Apprentice Challenge

Name five Chinese companies with offices in Ireland.

Using an Irish online supermarket, take screenshots of three products from Chinese-speaking countries that you can buy in Ireland.

Find one Chinese advertisement on YouTube. Write down one point you learned and note three words that you understood.

Name five Irish companies with offices in Chinese-speaking countries.

Read the business section of a Chinese newspaper and write down one thing you learned.

Watch three of the Languages Connect career videos and write one point you learned from each one <https://languagesconnect.ie/at-work/> You must include one video with the language you are studying.

Interview someone who uses a language in the course of their job, apart from teachers in your school, and write or record three things you have learned from them.

Using online catalogues, compare the price of any product that you find for sale in both a Chinese-speaking country supermarket and an Irish supermarket.

Find a top global CEO who speaks Chinese and another language
Suggested website:
9 Fortune 500 CEOs who speak another Language babel.com

List three third-level courses in Ireland that combine Chinese with a skill (IT, Science, Business)
Suggested website:
careersportal.ie

Find out how many Global 500 companies are in Chinese-speaking countries.
Suggested website:
brandirectory.com/rankings/global/table

Look up marketing terms and find the Chinese words for five of them. Use each of them in a sentence.

Find three jobs advertised on linkedin.com that require Chinese.

Watch the business section of the news in Chinese and write down one thing you learned