

TY Module Non-Beginners

The Great Japanese Language Apprentice Challenge

Name five Japanese companies with offices in Ireland.

Name five Irish companies with offices in a Japanese-speaking country.

Watch three of the Languages Connect career videos and write one point you learned from each one www.languagesconnect.ie/at-work You must include one video with the language you are studying.

Look up marketing terms and find the Japanese words for five of them. Use each of them in a sentence.

Using an Irish online supermarket, take screenshots of three products from Japanese-speaking countries that you can buy in Ireland.

Interview someone who uses a language in the course of their job, apart from teachers in your school, and write or record three things you have learned from them.

List three third-level courses in Ireland that combine Japanese with a skill (IT, Science, Business).
Suggested website: careersportal.ie

Find three jobs advertised on Jobs.ie that require Japanese

Find one Japanese advertisement on YouTube. Write down one point you learned and note three words that you understood.

Using online catalogues, compare the price of any product that you find for sale in both a Japanese-speaking country supermarket and an Irish supermarket.

Find out how many Global 500 companies are in Japanese-speaking countries.
Suggested website: brandirectory.com/rankings/global/table

Read the business section of a Japanese newspaper and write down one thing you learned. Here is a list of 5 websites
1. 2. 3. 4. 5.

Find a top global CEO who speaks Japanese and another language
Suggested website: 9 Fortune 500 CEOs who speak another Language babel.com

Watch the business section of the news in Japanese and write down one thing you learned. Here is a list of 2 websites
1. 2.